

1 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: Consequently, you believe
2 that 4.19 would give the Governor the power to take func-
3 tions from one bureau or agency and put them in another
4 bureau or agency.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan.

6 DELEGATE MORGAN: That is correct. That is the 7 purpose of it.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Adkins.

9 DELEGATE ADKINS: May I simply say that if I
10 gave that impression to Delegate Hardwicke, I certainly 11 did not intend to do so. It is quite clear to me that 12 he has the power to establish principal departments and to 13 reassign the functions of the state within the principal
14 departments. What I attempted to say was that he had no
15 authority to create new functions. He could reassign func-
16 tions already established by some other legislative pro-
17 cess.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Hardwicke.

19 DELEGATE HARDWICK: I would like to address a
20 question to Delegate Adkins.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Does Delegate Adkins yield to a
